April 5, 1764. NUMB. 1841.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

On Sunday laſt the Captains Robinſon, Friend, Callender and Watt, arrived here from London, by whom we have the following Advices, viz.

From the GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE for January, 1764.

THE depoſition of an old Grand Vizir, and the appointment of a new one, are events that ſeldom happen at the Ottoman Porte, without being attended by confiſcations, deaths, or baniſhments; but our advices from Conſtantinople aſſure us, that both theſe have been effected without the leaſt diſturbance; on the contrary, his Sublime Highneſs has not only ſuffered Hamzey Pacha, the depoſed Vizir, to keep all his Effects, but has alſo made him a preſent of 40,000 piaſtres, to defray the expences of his journey to Candia, of which iſland he is made governor; a proof of the refinement of that court, and that the Turkiſh Sovereigns are leſs bloody and brutal than formerly.

The advices in the foreign prints, reſpecting the affairs of Ruſſia, are very little to be depended upon; another conſpiracy has been talked of againſt the Czarina, and the march of numerous forces againſt the Chineſe, on the borders of Siberia; but neither of theſe reports are much regarded. The attention of that court ſeems, at preſent, directed to the affairs of Poland, it being of great importance to the intereſts of both crowns to have a monarch on the throne of that kingdom who is well diſpoſed to live in amity with Ruſſia.

The Turkiſh ambaſſador at Berlin is careſſed with uncommon aſſiduity by his Pruſſian Majeſty. The great object of his embaſſy ſeems to be the concluſion of a treaty of alliance, in which the guarantee of Sileſia is a principal article. Some pretend to foreſee, from the nature of the correſpondence between the two courts, that this treaty is in great forwardneſs.

The court of Vienna cannot but look with a jealous eye on this new and unexpected alliance. Though the regiments in their Imperial Majeſty's pay are all complete, yet recruits are continually levying in Hungary, and other parts of the imperial dominions, with as much diligence as if upon the eve of a war.

Great preparations are every where making throughout Germany, againſt the approaching election of a King of the Romans; and nothing is talked of but ſumptuous equipages and grand appearances, each of the Electoral Miniſters preparing to outvie the other in ſplendor and magnificence.

Another alliance has been talked of, that bodes no good to the Ruſſian empire, and that is a treaty offenſive and defenſive between the Courts of Verſailles, Vienna, Copenhagen, and Stockholm; what truth there may be in this report, time will diſcover.

In the mean time, a coolneſs has been obſerved between France and England, occaſioned, as is pretended, by the non-execution, on the part of the former, of the terms of the late treaty, particularly with reſpect to the demolition of Dunkirk. The Engliſh miniſtry, however, it is thought, will overcome all difficulties, and endeavour, by powerful repreſentations, to accompliſh their deſires, without having recourſe to other means upon trivial occaſions.

But while France is providing for her external ſafety, by powerful alliances, her internal policy ſeems to be in diſorder. The ſtruggles between the crown and parliament cannot but give the French miniſtry much uneaſineſs. The parliament of Thoulouſe has preferred articles of impeachment againſt the Duke of Fitz-James, the king's intendant-general for that province, to the following purport: "Conſidering, ſay they, the repeated outrages, and unprecedented violences, which the Duke of Fitz-James, in contempt of his oath, has been guilty of, againſt the ſovereign juſtice of the king, by the abuſe he has made both of the name and power of his majeſty, namely, in ſurrounding by military force the ſanctuary of the laws, menacing the miniſters of juſtice even in the temple of juſtice, where the royal majeſty virtually reſides, and cauſing to be arreſted by force and arms, and by an unprecedented attempt, all the officers of the ſaid court; exerciſing upon them incredible vexations, the bare recital of which ſhocks humanity, and the remembrance of it will be eternally odious to the nation, whilſt by indiſcreet precautions, more capable of exciting than preventing tumults, he ſtrove to realize, in the minds of the moſt ſubmiſſive and loyal people, the vain phantom of a revolt, ever alarming to magiſtrates, even when there is no room to fear it.

"Having, in this manner, proceeded to the utmoſt exceſſes of audacity and delinquency, forgetting his quality of ſubject, he dared, at laſt, to ſpeak like a ſovereign to the members of the court, put their liberty under frantic conditions, making it depend on the impunity of ſo many acts of violence; and at laſt, crowning all his arbitrary proceedings with exacting from loyal magiſtrates, as a non-equivocal aſſurance of their ſubmiſſion to the king, the acceptance of the ſhameful treaty he propoſed to them.

"The ſaid court, further conſidering the neceſſity of avenging the preſent time, and providing for the ſafety of future ages, by a memorable example that may be ſatisfactory to the honour of the throne, to the glory of the monarch, to the authority of the laws, to the ſafety of the magiſtracy, to public liberty, and to the dignity of the ſaid court, attrociouſly abuſed by one of its members; has ordered, and does hereby order, that the ſaid Duke of Fitz-James ſhall be perſonally taken and ſeized, whereſoever he may be found in the kingdom, and brought to the priſons of the court; and in caſe he cannot be apprehended, his eſtates and effects ſhall be ſeized, or put under the adminiſtration of a legal commiſſary, according to the ordinances, &c. &c."

To this arret iſſued out againſt the duke, an appeal was made to the parliament of Paris; and the firſt preſident, on the 30th paſt, waited on the king, to know if his majeſty would be pleaſed to attend the examination; who returned for anſwer, that as the Duke of Fitz-James repreſented his perſon in the province of Languedoc, he reſerved to himſelf and his council the determination of his cauſe; permitting, however, the parliament to make ſuch repreſentations of his conduct as they ſhould find agreeable to juſtice and the laws. This anſwer being taken into conſideration, a committee, conſiſting of the princes of the blood, four peers, and ſixty members of parliament, was nominated to wait upon the king with their remonſtrances. [So far from the Magazine.]

Hamburgh, Dec. 16. France continues her ſubſidy to Sweden, on condition that the latter will keep 6000 men in readineſs to enter Germany, whenever the exigency of affairs ſhall require it.

Dec. 23. The Elector of Saxony died very ſuddenly and unexpectedly, on Saturday the 17th inſtant, at two o'clock in the morning, of the ſmall-pox, which came out only a few hours before he expired. The guards took the oaths on the ſame day to the preſent Elector, who enters only upon his 14th year this day. Count Bothmar left this place yeſterday morning, in his way to England.

Tunis, Nov. 21. On the 11th inſt. the Bey ſignified to the Swediſh Conſul, that he declared war againſt the King his maſter, and immediately after an embargo was laid upon all the ſhips in the harbour. This rupture is occaſioned by the refuſal of the court of Sweden to comply with ſome demands made by the Bey. Four ſhips are going to cruize againſt the Swedes, and they will be followed by three more as ſoon as they can be got ready.

Notwithſtanding the repeated remonſtrances of the French Conſul, the Bey of Tabarca is determined to deliver up to the Bey of Algiers, the French who eſcaped from the perſecution of the latter, and took refuge under the former.

Hamburgh, Dec. 30. By credible advices received from Berlin we are informed, that within theſe laſt four months the King of Pruſſia has received upwards of 20,000 recruits.

Leghorn, Dec. 26. It is confidently aſſerted, that the Regencies of Tripoli and Sallee have declared war againſt the Dutch, under the pretext, that the latter have refuſed to ſupply them with the uſual quantity of warlike ſtores.

LONDON.

Dec. 27. It is reported that the Firſt Lord of the Admiralty, and the Secretary of State for the northern department, will ſhortly exchange places.

Extract of a letter from Canterbury, Dec. 25.

"Laſt night at five o'clock Mr. Wilkes came to the Fountain inn here, and with the utmoſt haſte went in a chaiſe and four to Dover, attended only by a ſervant in the chaiſe with him. About half an hour after came an officer in his regimentals, and on being told Mr. Wilkes was gone forward, hurried after him."

Extract of a letter from Dover, Dec. 25.

"Laſt night between ſeven and eight o'clock came to the Silver Lyon inn in Dover, John Wilkes, Eſq; in his way to France, in good health. He had not been in the inn above an hour before he was honoured with ſome gentlemen of this town, to congratulate him on his happy recovery from his late indiſpoſition; and he expreſſed great ſatisfaction in having that honour done him."

P. S. He ſailed this afternoon, between one and two o' clock, for Calais."

Dec. 29. Letters from Hamburgh adviſe, that the Chineſe, to the number of near 100,000 men, have penetrated a conſiderable way into Siberia, and have been joined by a large body of Tartars; ſo that the 25,000 men, ſent by the Czarina to diſlodge the Chineſe from Siberia, will be able to do nothing.

It is ſaid that Lord Sandwich will ſoon retire with a penſion of 3000 l. per annum, on the Iriſh eſtabliſhment.

No account of the motives of Mr. Wilkes's journey to France, or of the time of his ſtay, appears to be as yet publiſhed by any of thoſe friends who have acceſs to know the truth.

Dec. 31. It is now ſaid, that the Earl of Egmont, and the Earl of Halifax, will exchange places; but who is to be Secretary of State in the room of the Earl of Sandwich, who will retire, is not yet ſaid.

If we may give credit to advices received in Holland from Paris, the claims of England on France for the maintenance of her priſoners, are in a fair way of being ſettled. Several miſtakes, they pretend to ſay, have been diſcovered in the Engliſh accounts, which will reduce the ſum total almoſt one half.

The Report of the L---d L----t of I--l--d's been ſoon expected in England, is without foundation. It is certain there was propoſed to him the ſecuring a penſion of 5000 l. per ann. and not more, on the Iriſh eſtabliſhment, for the H---d--t--ry Prince; and 3000 l. for the Earl of S---. His anſwer was, either permiſſion to reſign, or not to be charged with commiſſions ſo very diſagreeable to the people, and inconſiſtent with his own honour, having promiſed not to burthen the people with more penſions. He was very readily excuſed from theſe two diſagreeable commiſſions upon his remonſtrance; aſſured of the King's approbation of his conduct in every reſpect, and deſired to continue in a government, where by his loyalty, integrity and prudence, he did the Crown infinite ſervice, and both kingdoms honour.

Jan. 3. Friday laſt the Right Honourable the Lords of the Admiralty were pleaſed to order ſix Lieutenants of the navy to ſet out immediately for North-America, to take upon them the command of ſix cutters under Lord Colvill.

Letters from Holland by the laſt mail adviſe, that the Court of Denmark are putting all their forces, by ſea and land, on a formidable footing: Both the horſe and foot are to be augmented, and orders are already iſſued for raiſing recruits, not only throughout all the King's dominions, but alſo in ſome towns of Germany.

Jan. 5. The Hannah, Argal Cauſen, maſter, from Virginia to Liverpool, was loſt in the ſtorm of the 30th ult. near Croſbie Point, and the veſſel broke to pieces; the captain and all the crew, except one man and a boy, were drowned; proper care is taken to ſave all that is poſſible of the cargo.

At Paris they had a ſtrong report on Chriſtmas-day, that advice was received, that the Czarina was marching a large body of Forces into the territories of Poland, in order to aſſert ſome old claims to certain Palatinates.

But by letters from the Hague we learn, that the Ruſſian Miniſter at that place, by order of his Court, has publickly declared, that the reports which were ſpread of the Empreſs his Sovereign's deſign to ſeize ſome part of the Poliſh territories, had no foundation; and that it was equally falſe, that ſhe had, with that view, concluded a treaty with the King of Pruſſia, who likewiſe was ſaid to have a deſign on ſome part of Poland. The Ruſſian Miniſter not only openly contradicts theſe reports, but he alſo adds, that the Empreſs of Ruſſia will not ſuffer any potentate whatſoever to diſmember any part of the dominions of the Crown of Poland.

January 7. Letters from Holland adviſe, that France and Spain have agreed to ſend a powerful fleet in the ſpring to bombard Algiers, if the Dey ſhould perſiſt in refuſing them proper ſatisfaction, and to deliver up all the French and Spaniſh priſoners.

January 10. The French Court have agreed, it is ſaid, to aſſiſt the Genoeſe with 6000 men, chiefly foreigners in their ſervice, to be commanded by General Luckner.

Jan. 12. The Bey of Tripoli, and that of Sallee have notified to the Dutch Conſuls reſiding there, that unleſs an additional quantity of ammunition be furniſhed, their ſhips will not paſs unmoleſted; and as this demand has been refuſed, war has been declared againſt the Dutch.

On Tueſday the Committee choſen by the Canada Merchants, with their Chairman, waited on the Earl of Halifax, Secretary of State, with their memorial relative to the paper-money due from the King of France to the Canadians; the payment of which is engaged to be paid by the French King in the Definitive Treaty of Peace. His Lordſhip aſſured them, that proper orders would be immediately ſent to the Earl of Hertford, our Ambaſſador at Paris, to apply for the payment of the ſaid money.

The laſt letters from Poland adviſe, that the two candidates for the throne who have declared themſelves, are the Prince de Czartorinſky and the Count de Poniatowſky; that the Czarina has declared for the latter; but that the King of Pruſſia has not yet made known his ſentiments.

There are accounts in town, that the Turks had again appeared in the frontiers of Hungary; which gave great uneaſineſs to the inhabitants of that country.

January 14. Yeſterday a bill of indictment, for a pretended theft of papers belonging to Mr. Wilkes, was preferred to the Grand Jury for the county of Middleſex, by Mr. Wilkes's Friends, againſt Mr. Curry, one of the witneſſes to prove the publication of the Eſſay on Woman, which the Houſe of Lords has declared to be a wicked and blaſphemous libel; and the republication of the North Briton, which both Houſes of Parliament have declared to be a ſeditious libel, aſperſing every branch of the legiſlature, and tending to raiſe traiterous inſurrections againſt his Majeſty's government; but the Grand Jury, conſiſting of gentlemen of rank and character, returned the ſaid bill ignoramus.

We can aſſure the public, that laſt night a bill of indictment, for no leſs an offence than wilful and corrupt perjury, was found by the Grand Jury for the county of Middleſex, againſt a perſon of ſome conſequence in law and politics, for a teſtimony given in behalf of the defendant, in a late popular trial at Weſtminſter-hall.

WHITEHALL, January 14.

His moſt Serene Highneſs the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick Lunenburgh, having ſailed from Helvoetſluys, on board his majeſty's yacht the Princeſs Auguſta, on Tueſday laſt, the 10th inſt. landed at Harwich the 12th, in the morning, and arrived laſt night at Somerſet houſe.

St. James's. This day his moſt ſerene highneſs the hereditary prince of Brunſwick Lunenburgh waited on their majeſties and the reſt of the royal family.

Lord Chamberlain's Office. The marriage of her royal highneſs the princeſs Auguſta, with his moſt ſerene highneſs the hereditary prince of Brunſwick Lunenburgh, is appointed to be ſolemnized at St. James's, on Monday next, the 16th inſt. at 7 o'clock in the evening; at which time none but Peers and Peereſſes, Peers eldeſt ſons and Peers daughters, Privy Counſellors, and their wives, and foreign miniſters, are to be admitted.

St. James's, Jan. 16. This evening the ceremony of the marriage of her royal highneſs the princeſs Auguſta with his moſt ſerene highneſs the hereditary prince of Brunſwick Lunenburgh, was performed in the great council chamber by his grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.

After the ceremony of the nuptials, their ſerene and royal highneſſes remained at St James's till nine, and then repaired to Leiceſter houſe, where a grand ſupper was prepared; at which were preſent their majeſties, the princeſs dowager, princes William and Henry, and the reſt of the royal family. Their majeſties went away about twelve.

Jan. 17. Their ſerene and royal highneſſes the prince and princeſs of Brunſwick received the compliments of the nobility and gentry at Saville-houſe, Leiceſter fields, on account of their nuptials; where they reſide during their ſtay in England. The ſervants remain at Somerſet Houſe.

At night there was a grand ball at St. James's, on account of the happy marriage.

Mr. Wilkes is hourly expected at his houſe in Great George-Street, Weſtminſter.

Jan. 19. In the evening the hereditary prince of Brunſwick paid a viſit to the royal ſociety, of which he had been elected a member.

His ſerene highneſs, during his ſtay, alſo viſited the Britiſh Muſeum, St. Paul's, the Tower, Weſtminſter abbey, &c. &c. and the duke of Cumberland, Mr. Pitt, the duke of Newcaſtle, and many others of the nobility and gentry, being generally attended by the marquis of Granby.

Mr. Wilkes's friends have received letters from him by yeſterday's mail, acquainting them, that he was confined to his room, and incapable of ſetting out on his return home the 13th inſtant, as he intended; and that he has ſent over a certificate of his ill ſtate of health in a letter to a perſon of diſtinction.

We hear ſome memorials of great conſequence, tending to clear up certain myſterious affairs heretofore tranſacted in America, are now preparing for the preſs, and will ſpeedily be publiſhed at the deſire of a great man lately returned from that part of the world.

Jan. 20. The houſe of Lords preſented their congratulations to their majeſties and the princeſs Dowager, on the late happy marriage.

A new writ was ordered for the election of a member for Ayleſbury, in the room of John Wilkes, Eſq; who was expelled the Houſe of Commons.

The Lord Mayor, aldermen and commons of London, preſented their Addreſſes on the Marriage of the prince of Brunſwick and the princeſs Auguſta.

Jan. 21. The crowd was ſo great at the Opera-houſe, to ſee the hereditary prince, that the coaches of the quality could not come near the door, which obliged the ladies to get out and walk to the houſe. Four parts in five of the number of genteel perſons were obliged to go back again, after being in the moſt imminent danger of being cruſhed to death. During the time of the crowd, there were quarrels, and ſwords drawn by the gentlemen, who endeavoured to get up; the ſhrieks of the ladies were very pitiful; a great many caps, ruffles, handkerchiefs, ear-rings, aprons and cloaks, were loſt, and great numbers of people fainted away.

Yeſterday appeared in the Daily Advertiſer the following notice: "All perſons who have any claims or demands "on John Wilkes Eſq; of Great George-Street, Weſt-"minſter, are deſired to ſend their accounts (ſealed up) "to Mr. Heaton Wilkes in St. John's-Square, Clerk-"enwell."

Mr. Wilkes's phyſician and ſurgeon declare, that he did not acquaint them with his deſign of going to France; that he ſaid he was only going to the country for a few days, and that he would take with him four or five dreſſings for his wound; that at the time he ſet out, his wound did by no means permit him to take a journey to Paris; but that had he ſtaid in England, he would probably have been able to attend the Houſe of Commons on the day appointed for his appearance there.

Jan. 25. His majeſty went to the houſe of Peers, in the uſual ſtate, attended by his grace the duke of Rutland, and the earl of Eglinton, and gave the royal aſſent to a bill for naturalizing his ſerene highneſs the prince of Brunſwick; to a bill for puniſhing mutiny and deſertion; to a bill for incloſing lands, commons, &c. in the county of Lincoln; and to ſeveral other bills.

The prince of Brunſwick went in the next coach to his majeſty, and was in the houſe of lords during his majeſty's ſtay there; after which he returned to Leiceſter houſe to dinner, where her highneſs the princeſs of Brunſwick had remained all the morning, taking leave of the ladies of quality, her intimates, with the greateſt tenderneſs and fortitude; and in the intervals was frequently at the windows, near one of which ſhe breakfaſted, that the people might have an opportunity of ſeing her as much as poſſible before ſhe was ſeparated from them, perhaps for ever, all of whom ſympathized with her highneſs. Her highneſs opened the window more than once to take leave of ſome ladies who were in the windows of Saville-houſe, to whom ſhe very tenderly called out, 'good-bye,' and then ran back.

Their highneſſes ſat down to dinner about two o'clock, with the princes William Henry and Henry Frederick, and ſeveral lords and ladies of quality; and about a quarter paſt three o'clock their highneſſes took leave of the company; when the prince on the people's expreſſing their ardent wiſhes for their highneſſes happineſs and proſperity, returned his prayers for the ſucceſs of the Britiſh nation, for which, he ſaid, he had already bled, and would again, with pleaſure, on any future occaſion. Their highneſſes then deſcended the ſtairs to their coaches, amidſt an innumerable crowd of ſpectators, who were waiting for their laſt farewel of their amiable princeſs. His highneſs, attended by three gentlemen, went down firſt to get into the coach, but that being the coach appointed for the princeſs, they waited at the bottom of the ſtairs while his royal highneſs prince William Henry handed the princeſs into her coach, who was accompanied by lady Suſan Stuart, and two noblemen. The prince of Brunſwick, with his attendants, went in the next coach; the princes William Henry and Henry Frederick went next in a poſt-chaiſe and four; and laſt went two noblemen, in another poſt-chaiſe and four; attended by many ſervants on horſeback, but no guards. They went through the back gate, and took their route through Tottenham-court and the city road to Whitechapel, for the ſeat of lord Abercorn, at Witham, in Eſſex, where they arrived in ſafety by eight o'clock at night, and where a grand entertainment was provided for their highneſſes. Many of the nobility, of both ſexes, went before, to ſpend the evening with their highneſſes at his lordſhip's.

Her royal highneſs the princeſs of Brunſwick was dreſſed in the German faſhion, in a ſcarlet ſilk, buttoned before, ſleeves down to her wriſts, and with a ſack behind. The prince was dreſſed in blue and gold, having changed the dreſs that he went to the houſe of lords in, which was a rich gold and ſilver ſilk, with a orange coloured ribbon and ſtar, the ornament of the order of the black eagle of Pruſſia.

[The morning after the marriage of the princeſs of Brunſwick, the nurſe, who had the care of her royal highneſs in her infancy, waited on his highneſs the prince of Brunſwick with the firſt pair of ſhoes her highneſs wore, for which he made her a preſent of 100 guineas.

It is ſaid that the king made her royal highneſs a preſent of a diamond necklace worth 30,000 l. the queen, of a gold watch of exquiſite workmanſhip, ſet with diamonds. The princeſs dowager of a rich diamond ſtomacher: The princeſs Amelia of a caſket of jewels worth 80,000 l. and the duke of Cumberland, of a ſett of jewels for the hair of 20,000 l. value.]

A prodigious ſtorm of wind did irreparable damage on the ſea-coaſt; and the riſe of the waters in moſt of the conſiderable rivers, was no leſs ruinous in the inland parts. Such a number of ſhips have been driven aſhore and wrecked, as never were known before in one ſeaſon; the inſurers muſt be ſufferers to the amount of vaſt ſums, and many merchants and owners of ſhips in various nations are probably undone by the hand of providence.

In England, part of the banks of the river between Carlton and Rawcliff, in Yorkſhire, are broken down, and the adjacent country overflowed. The river Ouſe broke its banks, and overflowed the country from Selby to Barlibeg, to an almoſt incredible height. Yarm has undergone a ſecond inundation, and the current has demoliſhed every garden wall that ſtood in its way. The country adjoining to the river Hull is under water for many miles, and a more melancholy proſpect cannot be deſcribed. In the neighbourhood of Spalding a hare was taken upon a ſheep's back, on the firſt riſe of the inundation in that neighbourhood. The river Stockferry ſo over-topt its banks, that it became a perfect caſcade, roaring night and day. In Ely ſeveral thouſand acres are overflowed, and in Norfolk the Narr has done the ſame. The north ſtone bridge at Oundle is broke in three places; and the great bridge at Ternpsford blown up. The famous ruin at Godſtow is blown down. Thorney bank is broken down, and more than 20,000 acres of land laid under water between Wiſbich and Peterborough. The noted ſtone mill, formerly a priſon, at Yaxley, is blown down. By the waters being ſo long out, the church at Newbury has ſunk two feet deep. The Thames has overflowed its banks, ſo that the weſt country barges can bring no meal or malt to London.---The inundations have been ſo general in England, that room is wanting to enumerate the damages done by them, nor have they been leſs general or leſs fatal abroad. At Hamburgh the Elb roſe eleven feet above high water mark. Great part of Guelderland, Overyſſel, Cleves, the diſtrict of Beruwe, and almoſt all South Holland, is overflowed. Fourteen mills on the Rhine have all been carried away by the floods. The villages of Moes and Zell are laid under water, and the cattle and corn, and the fruits of the earth loſt. The damage done at Frankfort, by the waters, is computed at 40,000 l. 72 villages in the neighbourhood of Munſter are overflowed, and it is ſaid 12,000 ſouls have periſhed.

During the violence of the ſtorm, a fire broke out at Hyde-Park Corner, but was happily extinguiſhed with leſs damage than could have been expected.

A Gentleman gave on Monday laſt, at the Star and Garter in Pall-mall, 100 guineas, to recieve 2l. a day till Mr. Wilkes's publick arrival in England.

We are informed, that a noble Earl ſent Mr. Wilkes a thouſand pound Bank note the evening before his departure for France.

The two Dutch Mails which arrived this day bring advice, that it was rumoured at Hamburgh on the 13th., that a freſh conſpiracy had been diſcovered in Ruſſia.

The people of Hanover deſpair, they tell us, of ſeeing their Sovereign next ſpring, becauſe the Queen, who deſires to accompany his Majeſty, is with child.

Sunday morning the Prince of Brunſwick went to Hayes, to pay a viſit to Mr. Pitt, who is, and for ſome time paſt has been, extremely ill of the gout.

Extract of a letter received on Monday by Mr. Wilkes of Clerkenwell from his Brother.

Paris, Hotel de Saxe, Jan. 15, 1764.

"I am too ill at preſent to be ſure of any fixed time for my return, and I had better keep my room (as I am forced to do) here, than on the road to Calais, which would be the infallible conſequence of my ſetting out.

"I wrote to the Speaker laſt poſt, and incloſed, I believe, an unexceptionable certificate of my ill ſtate of health. My eager deſire is to return to my native country, to vindicate myſelf from a-----charge brought againſt me."

We hear that as ſoon as Mr. Wilkes lands in England, he will be taken into cuſtody of the Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod, for a breach of privilege of the Houſe of Peers, in affixing the name of a learned Prelate to a blaſphemous performance, intituled, An Eſſay on Woman.

If we may believe ſome advices from France by the way of Holland, they have begun to enliſt men for the ſea and land ſervice with as much diligence as if a war was actually declared.

Jan. 28. It is ſaid that a treaty of Marriage is agreed on, and will be ſoon ſolemnized between the Prince Royal of Pruſſia, and one of the ſiſters of the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick.

On Wedneſday came on at Ayleſbury, the election of a Member for that borough, in the room of John Wilkes, Eſq; when Anthony Bacon, Eſq; a Virginia Merchant in Copthall-court, was choſen without oppoſition, and yeſterday he took the oaths, and his ſeat in the Houſe.

Extract of a letter from Canterbury, Jan. 26

"When Mr. Wilkes embarked at Dover in Capt. Wellard's Packet, he took with him his chariot and ſome other things, which did not indicate a ſpeedy return. The officer who followed him was named Dowell, and left his name at the bar of the Fountain, for a perſon whom he expected to come after him."

Jan. 31. The politicians at the Hague pretend that they think they can perceive the ſeeds of a miſunderſtanding between France and England beginning to ſpring up.

Feb. 2. Letters from Holland adviſe, that the courts of France and Spain propoſe to ſend to ſea in April next, a combined ſquadron of ſeven or eight ſhips of the line, and four frigates, to cruize on the coaſt of Barbary, not only with a view to protect the navigation of the two Crowns, but alſo to make captures, to indemnify their Subjects for the loſſes they have ſuſtained by the Infidels.

From the Hague they write, that Gen. Yorke, in a late conference with the Deputies of the States-General, ſignified to them, that his Court was informed that ſome Dutch Merchants had engaged to ſupply France with timber for ſhip-building, and likewiſe a certain quantity of cordage; that in England they muſt look upon this conduct as abſolutely contrary to the treaties of commerce and friendſhip which have ſo long ſubſiſted between the two nations; that the Ambaſſador therefore hoped that their High Mightineſſes would put a ſtop to a trade ſo pernicious and ſo dangerous to England.

Feb. 4. The Princeſs embarked on board one of the yachts on Monday morning laſt between eight and nine o'clock, and lay to off Landguard Fort; about eleven the Prince embarked in another yacht, and as ſoon as he came up with the Princeſs, they made ſail; and by 1 o'clock they were out of ſight, when the expreſs came away; and as they had a fair wind and fine weather, it was expected they would land at Helvoetſluys on Tueſday noon; an account of which is hourly expected.---No account has been received of the yachts putting into any port of England.

The only reaſon of the Hereditary Prince's leaving England ſo ſoon was, that being deſirous to remain here as a private gentleman, at his own expence, in order to viſit ſeveral parts of the kingdom, and being told that that was impoſſible, and utterly incompatible with the uſual ceremonies on theſe occaſions, which required it ſhould be at the expence of the crown, his Serene Highneſs did not chuſe to remain longer tied to ſuch irkſome etiquettes of State.

Feb. 6. The Lapwing, Griffin, from Eaſt-India, is arrived at Falmouth expreſs, and brings advice that one of the Nabobs had attacked Petna, near Calcutta, where the Engliſh had a factory, in which the following Gentlemen were killed:

Meſſrs. Amyatt, Hay, Wollaſton, Goring, Hutchinſon, and Gulſton.

Mr. Jones and Dr. Crook are ſuppoſed alſo to be among the ſlain.

Mr. Amplet is taken priſoner, and ſuppoſed to be murdered.

Governor Ellis, with 150 Europeans, are taken priſoners, and alſo ſuppoſed to be murdered. Caſſumbuzar is likewiſe taken.

On the above advices, ſeveral expreſſes were diſpatched from hence for Holland, and India ſtock fell 4 per cent.

We are told, that ſome Engliſh troops had entered Dacca (for what reaſon we cannot learn) when the Nabob fled from his palace, which the Engliſh entered, and began to plunder; information of which being ſent to the Nabob, he took an opportunity of falling upon them with his forces, and entirely routed them, cutting moſt of them to pieces; and being fluſhed with ſucceſs, he attacked two of the Company's factories, and took them.

It is reported that Gen. Laurence has ſtopped all the forces from coming to England, and had ſent for Gen. Draper's from Manilla, in order to draw the forces in a body.

It is ſaid by ſome that the Dutch were no ways concerned, but only the Nabob's troops, who were defending their country.

Feb. 7. It is ſaid, a Squadron of ſmall Ships of War will ſoon be ſent out to cruize in the Mediterranean.

Feb. 9. The trial of John Wilkes, Eſq; as the ſuppoſed author of No. 45 of the North Briton, will come on next Tueſday in the Court of King's Bench, Weſtminſter.

Feb. 11. By the Dutch mails we have the agreeable news, that the Prince and Princeſs of Brunſwick arrived happily at Helvoetſluys on Thurſday the 2d inſtant, after having been four days at ſea, which, during the whole time, was very tempeſtuous.

Letters received in Holland from Barbary bring advice, that the Algerines had concluded a peace with the French.

Laſt night the jury for Mr. Wilkes's trial, which comes on next Tueſday, was ſtruck before the Maſter of the Crown Office.

NEW-YORK, April 2.

Thurſday the Juno Frigate, Capt. O'Brian, arrived here from Portſmouth, in 5 Weeks and 4 Days, with 138 Cheſts of Silver, for the Pay of his Majeſty's Forces in North-America: The Ship ran on the Eaſt Bank in coming up, and is not got off, but the Money was brought to Town in a Boat Friday laſt.

Several Lieutenants of the Navy are come over in the above Ship, to command Cruizers, to prevent the Importation of prohibited Goods into the Colonies.

PHILADELPHIA, April 5.

The EXAMINATION of CANDIDATES for Degrees at the enſuing COMMENCEMENT, will begin To-morrow, at Ten o' Clock in the Forenoon, in the College-Hall of this City, where the Company of the Truſtees, and as many of the Citizens as pleaſe to attend, will be very agreeable.

Since our laſt we received what follows from Carliſle, viz.

"The Diſtreſſes of the Back Inhabitants are greater than can well be conceived. Two Hundred Miles of an extended Frontier are ſo expoſed to the Incurſions of Indians, that no Man can go to Sleep within 10 or 15 Miles of the Borders, without being in Danger of having his Houſe burnt, and himſelf and Family ſcalped, or led into Captivity, before the next Morning. No Man can tell where the Indians will ſtrike the next Blow, when they have begun their Murders and Devaſtations. On the 20th of laſt Month Agnes Davidſon, and her Child, of an Year old; Andrew Sims, 14 Years old; Margaret Stephens, 12 Years old; and Joſeph Mitchell, 3 Years old, were made Priſoners. Seven Houſes were burnt down on the 21ſt, and a great Number of Horſes, Cows, Sheep and Hogs were killed. On the 22d a Barn was burnt in the Path Valley, a Horſe was killed, and two taken away; about twelve Indians carried off the Captives, and ſeven or eight tarried behind, and did conſiderable Damage. The Captains Piper and Brady, with their Companies, did all that lay in their Power to protect the Inhabitants; and Lieutenant Chambers, and Enſign Aſky, purſued the Indians, to reſcue the Priſoners, but without Succeſs. Some Indians are ſuſpected to be ſtill ſkulking about Shippenſburgh, which ſeems the more probable, as Samuel Rippy's Barn, in the Town, was ſet on Fire, and believed to be done by theſe Enemies. Theſe freſh Troubles greatly diſcourage the poor People, who intended to return early in the Spring to their deſerted Habitations."

The following Paragraph of a Letter from a Gentleman in Carliſle, to his Friend in this City, may ſerve to give us ſome Idea of their Diſtreſſes, which bears Date March 26, 1764.

"Many of the Inhabitants of the Path and Shearman's Valleys, were purpoſing to adventure home, but this Affair has quite diſconcerted their Meaſures, and the People along the North Mountain are moving further in, eſpecially about Shippenſburgh, which is crowded with the Families of that Neighbourhood. Our Country has the Appearance of nothing but Confuſion and Diſtreſs, which I fear will increaſe. What ſhall ſo many Families do, who have ſpent the Winter with us, chiefly ſupported by the Contributors of Philadelphia, in Hopes of returning to their Settlements in the Spring? Many of them have been forced to ſell what few Cattle they ſaved, to ſupport their Families; and others who, in the Fall, would not apply for a Share in the public Contributions, are obliged by want to apply now, when our Funds are almoſt ſpent. The above ſeven Families got nothing ſaved but their wearing Cloaths, ſo ſudden was the Alarm; one poor Woman delivered of a Child, was obliged to remove in about two Hours Time after. Sir, I have but a melancholy Time of it, amidſt ſuch Calamity and Woes; I pray God may in Mercy ſhorten theſe Days of Miſery."

We likewiſe hear, that on the 26th ult. one Man was killed and ſcalped, and another carried off from near Fort Bedford: And that the laſt Meſſenger that went from Carliſle to Bedford, was purſued by the Enemy for many Miles; but being a good Woodſman, got ſafe in with his Diſpatches.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

The SPEECH of the Honourable JOHN PENN, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor of the Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, on Delaware, and Province of Pennſylvania, to the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the ſaid Counties.

GENTLEMEN,

THE Honourable the Proprietaries having been pleaſed, with His Majeſty's Royal Approbation, to appoint me to the Government of the Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, on Delaware, I am glad of this Opportunity of meeting in Aſſembly the Repreſentative Body of a People, who have, on all Occaſions, diſtinguiſhed themſelves by their Zeal for the Service of their King and Country, and their Regard and Affection for the Proprietary Family.

As I have nothing at preſent in Charge from the Crown to lay before you, nor from the Proprietaries, but to aſſure you of their particular Eſteem, and that it will give them a ſenſible Pleaſure to promote the Welfare and Happineſs of the good People of this Government; I ſhall now only recommend it to you, Gentlemen, to conſider of and prepare ſuch Bills as you, from your Experience and Knowledge in public Affairs, judge uſeful and neceſſary to your Conſtituents.----The Harmony and good Underſtanding, which have ſo long and happily ſubſiſted between the Legiſlative Branches here, have principally been owing to a due and conſtant Attention to the civil and religious Rights of the People, without attempting to invade the Royal Prerogative, or trample on the juſt Rights of Government. While you continue (as I doubt not you will) to act on theſe wiſe Principles, you may be aſſured that you cannot be more ready in aſking, than I ſhall be in granting, any thing that can tend to the Peace, Security and Happineſs of this Government.

May it pleaſe your HONOUR,

WE His Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Repreſentatives of the Freemen of the Government of the Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, upon Delaware, do, with all imaginable Chearfulneſs, return your Honour our moſt humble Thanks for your kind and affectionate Speech to this Houſe.

We beg Leave to embrace this firſt Opportunity to congratulate your Honour on your Appointment to, and ſafe Arrival in, this Government; and to aſſure your Honour, that a Gentleman of your good Character, and one ſo nearly related to our worthy and honourable Proprietaries, being choſen the Succeſſor to our late Governor Mr. HAMILTON, whoſe mild and juſt Adminiſtration had greatly endeared him to the good People we repreſent, gives us the greateſt Pleaſure.

The Aſſurances our honourable Proprietaries are pleaſed to give us, of their Approbation of the Conduct of the Repreſentatives of the People of this Government heretofore; and of their Eſteem for, and Deſire to promote the Welfare and Happineſs of, our Conſtituents, affords us a very ſingular Satisfaction, and muſt be very agreeable to them. We hope always to act in ſuch a Manner as to merit the Continuance of their good Opinion.

We acknowledge ourſelves under the greateſt Obligations to your Honour for your Promiſes of a careful and diligent Adminiſtration for the public Good, which we think ourſelves ſufficiently ſecured of by your kind Engagements, and good Diſpoſition; and confeſs, with the greateſt Joy, that you have aſſured us of all we can wiſh, and recommended to us all we ought to deſire; and we doubt not your good Intentions will procure yourſelf, and the People you preſide over, the greateſt Happineſs during your Government.

Permit us, Sir, in Return, to declare our ſteady and conſtant Reſolutions to ſupport equally the Royal Prerogative, and the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, to the utmoſt of our Power; to preſerve that Harmony and good Underſtanding between the legiſlative Branches here, which is ſo eſſentially neceſſary for the Diſpatch of Buſineſs, and to make your Adminiſtration eaſy and agreeable.

Signed by Order of the Houſe,

March 27, 1764. JACOB KOLLOCK, Speaker.

GENTLEMEN,

I AM much obliged to you for this kind and reſpectful Addreſs.--The Reſolutions you have taken to ſupport the Prerogatives of the Crown, as well as the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, will juſtly recommend you to His Majeſty's Favour. And you may be aſſured it will give me a particular Satisfaction at all Times to co-operate with you in promoting the Welfare and Proſperity of this Government.

Extract of a letter from the Hague, Jan. 10.

"We learn from Vienna, that the laſt diſpatches which the Court received from Mr. Pinckler at Conſtantinople, ſeemed to give the Miniſtry ſome uneaſineſs. His Excellency writes, that having lately ſounded the Ottoman Miniſters about the renewal of the truce between the two Crowns, which expired in Auguſt laſt, they gave him to underſtand, that as the Grand Signior deſired to maintain the good underſtanding which ſubſiſted between his Sublime Highneſs and the Empreſs Queen, he ſhould be glad to ſee the truce renewed; but for that end it would be neceſſary that her Imperial Majeſty ſhould deliver up to him, by way of hoſtages, ſome frontier towns in Hungary, particularly the towns of Cronſtadt and Porto Ferrario; but it is not imagined that the Empreſs will reliſh this propoſal."

The only authentic account which has appeared of the late affair in the Eaſt-Indies, is as follows: It ſeems to have come from the Eaſt-India Company.

"The intelligence lately received from the Eaſt-Indies, of diſturbances in the province of Bengal, and the cauſes of them, being variouſly related and miſrepreſented, we are ſorry to acquaint our readers, that we have good authority to ſay, thoſe diſturbances have riſen chiefly, if not wholly, from the very unjuſtifiable conduct of ſome of the company's ſervants, whoſe continual abuſes of the company's authority, to their own private emolument, and to the prejudice of the juſt rights of the country government, which neither the prudent remonſtrances, nor the diſintereſted example of the Governor [Mr. Vanſittart, brother to Miſs Vanſittart, maid of honour to the Princeſs of Wales] were able to reſtrain; having provoked the Nabob to ſome violent meaſures on his part, have at length, as was perhaps at firſt intended, produced an open rupture.

"On the 23d of June, Mr. Ellis, the Chief of the Company's Factory at Patna, thought fit to put himſelf at the head of a conſiderable body of the Company's troops, and, upon what provocation does not appear, to attack the city, which was carried with great ſlaughter of the Inhabitants, and given up to plunder. The [Indian] Governor [of Patna] making his eſcape, joined a party of the Nabob's forces, who were marching to his relief, and hearing of the diſorder into which the Engliſh in the town were fallen, attacked, and entered it ſword in hand, ſparing none who were found in arms. Ellis, with 3 or 400 men, Europeans and Seapoys, eſcaped, and croſſed the river.----The very day this misfortune happened, Mr. Amyat, who had been deputed from the Council at Calcutta to treat with the Nabob, and to diſpoſe him to comply with the demands they had thought fit to make on him, and who had attended the Nabob at Mongeer for that purpoſe, accompanied with ſeveral other Gentlemen of the Factory, not ſucceeding in the buſineſs of his embaſſy, took his leave of the Nabob, having received the neceſſary paſſports to return to Calcutta, and ſet out in boats with his party, conſiſting of Meſſieurs Amphlett, Wollaſton, Crooke, and Hutchinſon, and the Lieutenants Jones, Gordon, and Cooper, with two companies of Seapoys, and twenty European horſemen. Soon after their departure, news arriving at Mongeer of what had paſſed at Patna, this unfortunate party were followed by ſome of the Nabob's troops, and, as is ſuppoſed, by his orders; they were overtaken on the 3d of July near Muxadavad, and it is feared all, but Mr. Amphlett, who was carried bound to the Nabob, were cut to pieces.

"Upon advice of theſe incidents at Calcutta, the Council took upon them to ſet up Meer Jaffir, the Nabob formerly depoſed, [the ſame who gave Lord Clive his great fortune] the Company's whole force was ordered to take the field, under the command of Major Adams, who was advanced as far as Cutwa, when the laſt advices left him, and there was little doubt of his ſucceſs. It is hoped therefore, that long before now theſe commotions have ſubſided, and that the tranquility of the country is re-eſtabliſhed."

Feb. 11. Tueſday and Wedneſday laſt ſeveral poor priſoners were diſcharged from the Marſhalſea, by virtue of a charitable donation of 500 l. left for that purpoſe by the Princeſs of Brunſwick, before ſhe left England; 500 l was likewiſe left by her Royal Highneſs, for the diſcharge of priſoners in Whitechapel goal.

Some letters from Dantzick pretend that the Czarina is diſpoſed to marry again, and that the Prince of Anhalt-Gothen will be the happy one to whom ſhe will give her hand. This Prince is of the ſame family with herſelf, and nearly of the ſame age, and lately made a tour to Peterſburgh, where he met with a moſt diſtinguiſhed reception.

Newcaſtle, Jan. 28. A few days ſince a gentleman of this town, having a ſuſpicion that ſome of the copies of an Eſſay lately publiſhed, which is a ſcandal to humanity, were in the hands of ſome of the bookſellers here, went to each of them to enquire for a copy; and, finding a few in the poſſeſſion of only one of them, he, after getting all he had, paid for them, and inſtantly burnt them in the ſhop, telling him, he hoped ſuch a ſcandal to the preſs would never again be in his poſſeſſion.

Captain Green ſails for London next Saturday; and Captain Davis, for the ſame Place, about the 20th Inſtant.

The Juno Frigate got off the Weſt Bank laſt Monday, and came into the Harbour next Day.

We can acquaint our Readers, from undeniable Authority, with ſome more Particulars reſpecting the Indian War.

Capt. Bull, with his Party of 13 Men, was eſcorted from the German Flats, by a Guard of Provincials. Bull's Second remains wounded at Aughquaga, under the Care of the Indians there, to whom Sir William Johnſon has given five Priſoners, on Account of their good Behaviour: He has alſo diſtributed the reſt amongſt the Friendly Nations; putting them in the Places of their deceaſed Relations, which is an Indian Cuſtom they always expect will be followed.

Capt. Bull, with his Party, reſided at Kaneſtio; the Indians of which Village have been all along in Arms. He made large Offers of delivering up many Engliſh Priſoners, on his being ſet at Liberty.

Sir William Johnſon, ſince the Priſoners were brought to him, has received Advice of the Succeſs of a Party of ten Friend Indians, falling in with a Party of nine Delawares laſt Month, on the Frontiers of Pennſylvania, directing their Courſe againſt ſome Settlements, and ſinging their WAR SONGS; upon which the Friend Indians attacked them, killed the Head of the Party, and took three Priſoners, who (with the Scalps) were hourly expected at Sir William's. This is a lucky Circumſtance; the Indians being once engaged in Blood, muſt carry on the War with great Alacrity till they have deſtroyed theſe troubleſome People, who have annoyed all the northern Frontiers, both laſt War and ſince. Our Enemies are ſaid to be greatly alarmed, and many of them have retired, thro' Fear, beyond Sioto River, near the Lower Shawaneſe Town. Several Parties are preparing to follow them, as well as to go againſt the reſt; one of which Parties is to be headed by John Johnſon, Eſq; Sir William's Son.

There were, on the 23d ult. at Sir William's, above 400 Indians, and ſome Deputies ſent from the Chenuſſiaes, and other Seneca Caſtles, to make Offers of Peace, as they apprehend great Danger from the ſeveral Bodies of Friend Indians now upon Service.----The Friend Senecas of Kandaſego, have delivered up to Sir William, one Edward Kennedy, of Lieut. Gamble's Platoon, who was taken by the Outawas; after rambling in the Woods ſome Time, he fell in with the above-mentioned Indian Town.

LISBON, January 21.

LAST week ſome fiſhermen upon the coaſt, perceiving a veſſel at ſea in diſtreſs, went up to her, and found it to be an Engliſh veſſel, with only two men on board. They brought the ſhip into this river, which appears to be the Molly ſloop, Capt. Henry Hartley, of Placentia, bound from Teneriffe to New-York with wines. The Captain, while at Teneriffe, being in want of hands, had taken 4 Spaniards and a Black, to help to navigate the veſſel: Theſe, with two Engliſh, were all the crew. During the voyage, on the 26th of December the Spaniards and Black murdered Capt. Hartley, and then intended to ſteer for Cadiz, but they overſhot their port, and being off this harbour, the Spaniards and the Black took what they could out of the veſſel, and came aſhore, leaving the two Engliſhmen on board.-----The miniſters immediately iſſued an order to apprehend theſe Men, and one of the Spaniards and the Black were ſeized and put in priſon. The veſſel and cargo are put under the care of Mr. Joſeph Hake, a correſpondent of the merchants at New-York.

LONDON.

December 30. It is ſaid all officers belonging to the regiments in North America, now in Great Britain and Ireland, on leave of abſence, have received orders to embark for their reſpective corps without delay.

It is ſaid, that in examining the accounts of a late foreign contractor, a deficiency of nine thouſand pounds was diſcovered to be no otherwiſe ballanced, than by a number of worn-out horſes and crazy carriages, with ſome few other military ſtores, which, taken in the whole, were ſold off together for a ſum conſiderably ſhort of as many hundred pounds.

It is ſaid the preſent exorbitant and uſurious proceedings of certain naval and military agents, in conſequence of many heavy complaints, will ſoon be curtailed by a parliamentary reſtriction.

Jan. 19. It is reported, that a commiſſion has been lately diſpatched to our naval commanders in North-America, to deal with all French ſhips of force, who ſhall appear within a certain latitude of Newfoundland (where it may be preſumed they have no lawful buſineſs) as if the two nations were at open war.

We hear ſix regiments of infantry from Great-Britain and Ireland, are ſoon to embark for North-America.

Jan. 20. Among the ſeveral articles of the growth of our new colonies lately imported, are ſome ſtalks or fibres of Hemp raiſed in Florida, which are ſingly of ſo ſtrong a texture as to raiſe a weight of fifty pounds; and at the ſame time may be ſplit ſo as to equal fine ſilk; it is ſaid that great expectations with regard to trade are formed from the growth and culture of this valuable manufacture.

Upwards of five thouſand German and other Proteſtant families, are preparing, in the courſe of the enſuing ſummer, to embark, with all their effects, for the Engliſh ſettlements in North-America.

It is ſaid orders are ſent down to Woolwich to make a draught from the royal regiment of artillery, to fill up the deficiencies in the different corps ſtationed in the garriſons in North-America, and that they will embark as ſoon as the ſeaſon will permit.

Jan. 21. A new Packet will ſhortly be ordered on the New-York ſtation, in the room of the Counteſs of Leiceſter, lately loſt.

We hear a plan has been preſented to the Lords of the Admiralty, for building ſome light frigates, with eighteen cars of a ſide, and to carry 16 or 18 guns, to be made uſe of in the Weſt-Indies, inſtead of larger ſhips.

We hear the currency of the two Floridas is at laſt ſettled at five for one, which is thought to be the moſt proper medium between that of the iſlands and the Northern colonies.

Jan. 28. Ten millions of livres are now raiſed in France by way of ſubſcription loan, which fills exceedingly, on the credit of erecting a ſeparate Newfoundland Company, who are to enjoy many privileges.

Feb. 3. Monday a hackney coach was overturned in Parliament-ſtreet, whereby a gentleman had his arm broke. The driver applied to ſeveral perſons for aſſiſtance to get the coach up, but moſt of them, ſeeing the number was 45, declined giving any, ſaying, it was dangerous meddling with that number; ſo that the coach lay there for a conſiderable time, to the great obſtruction of other carriages.

Yeſterday the Court of King's Bench granted a rule againſt Governor Johnſton, to ſhew cauſe why an information ſhould not be exhibited againſt him for publiſhing a letter in the papers on Saturday laſt, relating to the affairs in Bengal, and the conduct of Governor Vanſittart.

They write from Scotland, that the lenity of the preſent government appears in nothing more conſpicuous, than in its conduct with regard to three perſons, who lately appeared again in that kingdom, and who were conſiderably dipt in the rebellion of the year 1745, concerning whom no other notice has been taken, than only a gentle admonition, that their future peaceful reſidence in their own country, depended wholly upon themſelves.

Feb. 11. It is rumoured that a certain Gentleman is ſet out for Paris, to hold a conference with Mr. Wilkes.

Feb. 13. The yacht which the Prince of Brunſwick was on board of, had her maſt carried away in the paſſage.

We are credibly informed, that the Prince and Princeſs of Brunſwick, on their landing at Helvoetſluys, ordered handſome preſents to be given to the Captains of the yachts, and alſo preſents to every private man belonging thereto.

It is ſtrongly ſuſpected that the Dutch and French have had a large ſhare in promoting the diſturbances in the East-Indies. A deputation from the directors of the company have already had two conferences with the Earls of Halifax and Sandwich, and Mr. Grenville, on the occaſion.

Friday Captain Lindſay, of his Majeſty's ſhip Tartar, kiſſed his Majeſty's hand on his departure for Florida, and had the honour of Knighthood conferred on him for his ſervices at Havannah.

Feb. 14. It is ſaid that the Right Hon. Lord Clive is preparing with all expedition to ſet out for the Eaſt-Indies, in the firſt ſhip that ſails, his Lordſhip's preſence being thought neceſſary in thoſe parts.

His Grace the Duke of Bedford's eſtate, which is ſituated at Thorney, about five or ſix miles from Peterborough, which conſiſts of above 19000 acres of land, is entirely under water, three feet deep, ſo that it looks like one continued ſea.

The Hon. William Pitt, Eſq; who has been for ſome time indiſpoſed with the gout, is ſo well recovered, as to be able to attend his ſervice at Parliament yeſterday.

A great aſſembly continued ſitting from Tueſday noon to ſeven o'clock yeſterday morning, an inſtance of which has not been known for many years.

Feb. 14. Laſt week died on board a ſhip in the river, coming from Bermuda, William Popple, Eſq; Governor of that iſland.

Feb. 16. The trial of John Wilkes, Eſq; for being the writer of the North Briton, which was to have come on yeſterday, in the court of King's bench, is put off.

A rumour now prevails, that an affair of the utmoſt importance to the conſtitutional liberty of theſe kingdoms, is now upon the carpet, the event of which is anxiouſly expected.

We hear that the treaſure which was on board the Britannia, Tillet, from Philadelphia for London, lately loſt on the coaſt of France, is likely to be ſaved, but the cargo is entirely loſt.

In the campaign of 1761, the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick was taken priſoner by a party of French, but immediately reſcued by the deſperate bravery of Captain Maclean, his aid-de-camp. During the Prince's ſhort ſtay in England, amidſt all the amuſements and diſſipation in which he was neceſſarily engaged, his gratitude could not forget poor Maclean, who fell in the laſt action of the laſt campaign in Germany. He enquired if he had any ſurviving relations, for whom he could aſk any favour of the King.

FRANCFORT, December 30.

AT Vienna, Paris, and even here, a great number of workmen are employed night and day, in preparing for the coronation of the King of the Romans. The dreſs of the Imperial Miniſter, Prince Nicolas Eſtherhazi, is making at Paris, and it is ſaid will coſt 40,000 florins.

To maintain good order and tranquility at the time that we ſhall have ſuch a great concourſe of foreigners, it is ſaid that ſome detachments of infantry and cavalry will be brought from the Low-Countries.

Berlin, Dec. 13. This Court and that of Vienna have at length agreed reciprocally to deliver up their reſpective ſubjects that enliſted among their troops in the laſt war.

Francfort, Jan. 5. The great rains which have fallen for ſome weeks paſt has cauſed the Mayne to overflow, inſomuch that this city is under water, as is likewiſe the adjacent country, and ſeveral villages. The city of Hanau has ſuffered the ſame fate, and travelling from hence to Mentz, by the way of Hochſt, is altogether impracticable; there has not been ſuch a flood ſince the year 1744. The Magiſtrates aſſembled extraordinarily to conſider in what manner to put a ſtop to the progreſs of this inundation; but they have not been able to hit upon an expedient for that purpoſe. There is no going from houſe to houſe but in boats. Happily laſt night the waters were greatly lowered.

Wageningen, Jan. 7. Our dyke having given way in three different places, two near this town, and the third on the road leading to the Rhine, and that river being continually gaining ground, every body has been in great conſternation for this week paſt, and moving their goods into the upper part of their houſes; but we begin to recover our ſpirits, the waters having ſunk conſiderably ſince yeſterday. The water the day before yeſterday was 19 feet 2 inches higher than it uſually riſes.

Hague, Feb. 7. Her Royal Highneſs the Hereditary Princeſs of Brunſwick arrived at Delft, on Saturday morning laſt, on board the Prince of Orange's yacht; Her Royal Highneſs was happily in perfect health, notwithſtanding the very great fatigue ſhe had undergone in her paſſage. Their Serene Highneſſes the Hereditary Prince and Prince Lewis went to Delft to receive her, and conduct her in the Prince of Orange's equipages, eſcorted by his Serene Highneſs's life-guards, to the palace of the old court, where his Serene Highneſs the Prince Stadtholder received her Royal Highneſs, and conducted her to her apartments. The States-General, the States of Holland, and the Council of State, upon news of her Royal Highneſs's arrival, nominated a deputation of their moſt diſtinguiſhed members, to compliment their Royal and Serene Highneſſes upon their ſafe arrival, and the happy concluſion of their marriage: but as they were pleaſed to decline receiving the deputations in form, all the Colleges had the honour to make their compliments without ceremony. The Prince of Orange has done his utmoſt to make their abode here as agreeable as poſſible.

Yeſterday evening her Royal Highneſs and the Hereditary Prince were graciouſly pleaſed to honour Sir Joſeph Yorke, his Britannick Majeſty's ambaſſador, with their preſence at a ball at his houſe; where were likewiſe preſent their Highneſſes Prince Lewis of Brunſwick, Prince George of Mecklenbourg, and the Prince of Weilbourg, the foreign Miniſters, and a very numerous company of perſons of diſtinction of both ſexes. Her Royal Highneſs's affability, condeſcenſion, and eaſe, have captivated all thoſe who have had the honour to approach her; and it is impoſſible to expreſs the ſatisfaction her preſence at this place has occaſioned. Their Highneſſes dined at Prince Lewis's yeſterday, and ſup there this evening.

The Princeſs of Naſſau Weilbourg was happily delivered of a Princeſs yeſterday in the afternoon. Her Serene Highneſs the young Princeſs is as well as poſſible. The Hereditary Prince and Princeſs of Bunſwick have been prevailed upon to be ſponſors to the new born Princeſs, which will probably defer their departure till Thurſday next.

Worceſter, Dec. 15. Laſt week died in this city, one John Dodley, near 90 years old. He was born with a contraction of the tendons in one of his hams, ſo as to be obliged to make uſe of a wooden leg about 30 years; after which, in endeavouring to recover a bell, which happened to be overſet, the rope pulled him up with ſuch velocity as to break the bandage that faſtened the artificial leg, and, in the ſame inſtant, rendered him capable of the free exerciſe of his natural one; and he carried heavy burthens a great many years after.

LONDON December 29.

According to ſome letters from Vienna, a marriage is in agitation between one of the Princes of Saxony, and an Archdutcheſs of Auſtria, with whom will be given, as a fortune, the Auſtrian Netherlands, which are immediately to be put in a reſpectable poſture.

The Ruſſian Miniſter at the Hague, by command of his Sovereign, has notified to the States, that the Duke de Biron has taken poſſeſſion of the dutchies of Courland and Semigallia. This notification occaſions much ſpeculation in Holland.

A correſpondent at Rome acquaints us, that in caſe his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York ſhould reſolve to viſit that celebrated city, he will be received there with the higheſt deference and honour.

Jan. 10. Sunday laſt the wife of a barber, in the city of Durham, who was married the day before, was delivered of three ſons and a daughter, who were immediately baotized by the names of Abraham, Iſaac, Jacob and Sarah. The woman is in a tolerable good way, but there ſeems but little probability of the children doing well.

Jan. 12. They write from Berlin of the 2d inſtant, that Prince Charles of Saxony was arrived there, under the title of Count de Hennenberg, and treated, by order of the King of Pruſſia, with the greateſt diſtinction. The buſineſs he came upon was not known, but was ſuppoſed to be relative to the election of the King of Poland.

Letters from Germany make mention, that the Elector Palatine had ſome thoughts of offering himſelf a candidate for the Poliſh crown.

We learn from Hull in Yorkſhire, that the country adjoining to that town, on the Holderneſs ſide of the river Hull, is totally under water for ſeveral miles, that though there are ſeveral drains into that river, which carry off a great quantity of water, the inundation rather increaſes than diminiſhes; that ſome villages were quite deſtitute of inhabitants, and that it was not without much danger the country people came to that town, tho' over the place where there was once a good turnpike road.

A letter from Yarm in Yorkſhire ſays, "This place has undergone a ſecond inundation within this month. The former, of the firſt of December, you are already acquainted with from the public papers; the latter began on Thurſday, the 29th in the morning, and roſe to the height of ſeveral feet in every houſe in the town. The current of the river through the ſtreets was very violent, and attended with a terrible wind, which ſeemed to threaten us with utter deſtruction. As the inhabitants had ſo lately ſuffered from the ſame cauſe, they very readily took the alarm upon the firſt riſing of the river, and removed their effects and periſhable commodities into their upper rooms, which happily prevented much greater loſſes than otherwiſe they muſt have unavoidably ſuſtained, as the flood continued for two whole days. We have hardly a garden wall ſtanding about the town; and our houſes are ſo well ſteeped with wet that the conſequence may be very bad, eſpecially as coals are very ſcarce here, on account of the late rainy ſeaſon."

Jan. 19. They write from Germany, that the river Weſer has very much overflowed its banks, and hath laid the flat country under water, and ſeveral veſſels were carried out of the current into the marſhes, where they were loſt.

Damage done in the Downs. On the 14th inſt. a ſloop came into Ramſgate, whoſe maſter ſays he ſaw two ſhips foul of each other, one of which foundered, and the other appeared to be in great diſtreſs. A brig, ſuppoſed to have been taking goods out of the Earl of Holderneſſe, was ſeen to founder in the gulph ſtream. One ſhip in the Downs has loſt all her maſts. A large Dutch ſhip came into Ramſgate with only her foremaſt ſtanding. A brig is aſhore at Broad-ſtairs, with her main maſt gone. A brig was aſhore on the North-Foreland, but afterwards drove out to ſea with her bowſprit gone; and three or four ſloops aſhore at Ramſgate, which are ſince got off, and in harbour.

Yeſterday being the birth-day of her Majeſty Queen Charlotte, the morning was uſhered in with the ringing of bells; at one o'clock the guns in the Park and the Tower were fired, and at night there were great illuminations in the cities of London and Weſtminſter.

The concourſe of coaches at St. James's yeſterday was ſo great, that many of the Nobility were obliged to be ſet down in St. James's Square, and carried in chairs from thence to Court.

The tranſport, from America, which was ſeen at anchor near the Holmes, in Briſtol Channel, ran aſhore at Aberthaw; and the people are all ſaved.

Jan. 21. So great was the curioſity of ſome ladies to ſee the Hereditary Prince, that ſeveral offered five guineas each for a ſeat in the boxes of Covent-Garden theatre on Thurſday night.

Jan. 24. We are credibly informed that on her Majeſty's birth-day, two young ladies went to Court, dreſſed in the habits of clergymen, and were taken great notice of by many who ſuſpected them to be what they really were, but as their behaviour was extremely modeſt, they were permitted to enjoy that curioſity which led them thither.

They write from Ireland, that a beggarman died lately at Pirr, in that kingdom, aged 105 years; and at Aſkermore, in the county of Wicklow, Mr. Henry Dyſon, formerly a conſiderable farmer in the ſaid county, died 120 years old. Alſo died at Roſs, Mrs. Elizabeth Clifford, aged 117; ſhe lived to ſee her offspring to the fifth generation.

Jan. 28. They write from Newbury, Berks, that the waters have been ſo much out, that the church ſunk two feet perpendicular, and the inhabitants were obliged to uſe boats to get ſuſtenance.

By a letter from Caernarvon, in Wales, we are informed of a remarkable wedding lately conſummated at Llanbeblig, the pariſh church of that town, between Anthony Thomas, of the ſaid pariſh, aged 45, and Elin Pritchard, of the pariſh of Trewalchmai, in Angleſey, aged 24; they both having been born deaf and dumb; and ſuch had been for a long time their mutual affection for each other, that whenever they met, they could never part without a ſeemingly great reluctance.

We hear that the government will not want to raiſe any new money this year, more than what the Bank has agreed to advance.

Feb. 1. One of the moſt affecting ſcenes at the departure of the Princeſs Auguſta, was as follows: When her highneſs, who had kept up her ſpirits ſurpriſingly, was on the point of taking coach, in going through the hall, ſhe found all her ſervants, drawn up in a row, to take their laſt farewel of an indulgent and moſt dearly beloved miſtreſs. The Sight of them inſtantly melted her into tears, and clapping her handkerchief before her eyes, ſhe haſtened to her carriage, unable to expreſs the emotions ſhe felt in any manner.

Feb. 2. It is reported, that five ſhips of the line, with ſome frigates, are ordered to be fitted with all expedition for the Eaſt-Indies, of which an Admiral is to have the command; Admiral Corniſh, with the greateſt part of his Majeſty's ſhips, being expected home in the enſuing ſpring.

They write from Ratiſbon with great confidence, that the Archduke Joſeph, after he is elected King of the Romans, will marry a Princeſs of Bavaria, ſiſter to the preſent Elector, who is to go to Alt-Oetti gen to have an interview with the Emperor, and accompany him from thence to Frankfort.

Feb. 4. On Thurſday morning laſt on Finchley Common, a ſingle footpad ſtopped a gentleman's coach, in which were two ladies, a councellor, and a captain of foot. The fellow had no weapon but a large claſp knife, which he thruſt into the coach, and ſwore inſtantly to prod, as he called it, into the gentlemen, if they made the leaſt heſitation in delivering their purſes; the councellor gave him five guineas, and the officer three and a half. The ladies were all the time in the greateſt agitation for fear the fellow would commit ſome barbarity, and held their money out, begging he might be content with it, and go about his buſineſs; but he had no ſooner done with the gentlemen than he removed their uneaſineſs, by ſaying, "Nay, ladies, do not be frightened, I never did the leaſt injury to a woman in my life, nor never will, damme; as for your money, keep it to yourſelves; all that I ſhall aſk from you will be a kiſs a-piece, and if you grudge me that, I am ſure you are neither ſenſible nor good humoured." The Ladies having complied, he took his leave very civilly, declaring that was the firſt robbery he ever committed, and ſhould be the laſt; that he had ſerved on board one of his Majeſty's ſhips the whole war, but that being fooliſh and extravagant, he had ſpent all his wages, and was then utterly deſtitute of employment and bread; "but this ſum (ſays he) will carry me home cleverly to Ireland, and then I ſhall be in no danger of wanting either, as I have a good many friends." The whole tranſaction laſted near five minutes, yet no paſſengers came up; and though there was a footman behind the coach, there was no attempt made for having the fellow ſecured.

Feb. 7. The French King made the following anſwer to the remonſtrances of the Parliament againſt his Majeſty's behaviour to the other Parliaments of the kingdom:

"I have examined your remonſtrances. I approve of what you have done for the ſupport of the rights of the Peerage. I have already ſignified to you my pleaſure with regard to the Duke of Fitz-James. My Parliament ought to place full confidence in my deſire to reſtore order and rule every where. I am at preſent employed about reſtoring the adminiſtration of juſtice in thoſe places where it has ſuffered any interruption. To morrow I ſhall ſend to my Parliament letters patent in form of a declaration, by which they will ſee that I am deſirous to remove every thing that is contrary to the plan which I have formed for procuring tranquility to my kingdom."

This declaration orders the declaration of the 21ſt of November to be carried into execution, and enjoins abſolute ſilence with regard to every thing that preceded and occaſioned that declaration, and puts a ſtop to all proceedings on that ſubject.

The Archbiſhop of Paris is again baniſhed to the diſtance of forty leagues from Paris.

Feb. 11. The following little Anecdote is too affecting, and too intereſting to every Engliſh Breaſt, to be paſſed over in Silence: When the Yacht made Sail, in which was her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Brunſwick, ſhe was importuned by thoſe about her to quit the Deck, and partake of ſome Tea or Coffee which was prepared below. "No, ſhe ſaid, in one half Hour I ſhall be out of Sight of England, and I will gaze at the laſt Cliff of my dear native Country, till I can ſee it no longer."

Feb. 13. On Wedneſday laſt a duel was fought on Epping Foreſt, between Cornet Gardiner of the Carribineers (and not Capt. Gardiner of the Marines, who diſtinguiſhed himſelf laſt war at the ſiege of Guadaloupe, tho' it was confidently reported to be the latter) and the Rev. Mr. Hill, Chaplain of Bland's Dragoons, when the latter received a wound in his body, of which he died on Friday night, at his lodgings in Johnſon's Court, Charing croſs.

Portſmouth (New-Hampſhire) March 30.

Laſt Saturday Morning the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD preached to a crouded Auditory in the Rev. Mr. Haven's Meeting Houſe, and on Tueſday in the Rev. Dr. LANGDON's---He had at a Moderate Computation Five Thouſand Hearers----He preaches again To-morrow at the ſame Place, at Ten o'Clock.----The different Denominations of Chriſtians unite in attending his Lectures.

BOSTON, April 5, 1764.

Extract of a Letter dated London, Feb. 11, 1764.

"The French King has publiſhed an Arret, permitting the free Importation of Horſes and Lumber into his iſlands, to be paid for in Rum and Melaſſes."

Other advices from London are, that the trade between the Weſt-Indies and North-America, as alſo the revenues of the latter, are now under conſideration. The duties on melaſſes, ſugars, &c. imported into his Majeſty's plantations from the French, Spaniſh and Dutch ſettlements in the Weſt-Indies, but chiefly from the former, it is ſaid, would be determined by the latter end of February laſt-----Various are the conjectures as to this affair; by ſome it is ſaid, a low duty will be laid on foreign Melaſſes, 1 or 2 pennies per gallon, it is thought, is as much as it will bear: That there will be a duty of 10s per C. weight on foreign Sugars: A very large duty, or total prohibition of French rum. It is alſo ſaid, a duty will be laid on tea, on wine and fruit from Spain and Portugal, imported into the plantations. It is ſaid, that the duty on whalebone, exported from the colonies of Great-Britain, will be taken off.-------It is ſaid a præmium is likely to be granted on hemp raiſed in, and imported from North-America.

The above we publiſh as reports; the firſt veſſel from London, it is probable, will bring the determination of them.

It is rumoured, that General Monckton will, at the earneſt requeſt of the colonies, be appointed commander in chief in North-America.

It is reported that Lord Egmont is to have the property of the Iſland of St. John in the Gulph of St. Lawrence: The Tenure, by which Lord Egmont propoſes to hold the Iſland of St. John, is, it is ſaid, extremely well calculated for the cultivation of that Iſland, and for the advantage of the trade, and particularly the fiſhery of North-America; the government thereof propoſed, has not the leaſt reſemblance or analogy to the proprietary form of other governments, often complained of; but, on the contrary, all their inconveniencies are obviated.

The Iſland of St. Vincent, in the Weſt-Indies, is claimed by Lord Cordigan, as heir to the Duke of Montague.

April 9. We hear his Excellency will this Day iſſue a Proclamation for diſſolving the General Aſſembly of this Province.

NEWPORT, April 9.

Yeſterday Capt. Hamilton arrived here in 18 Days from Monſerrat, by whom we learn, that the Captains Allen, Clarke, and Miathorn, of this Port, were ſoon to ſail from the Grenades, for this Place.

NEW-YORK, April 16.

That John Johnſon, Eſq; Sir William's Son, has ſet off with about 200 Indians and Whites, to deſtroy the Towns on the Weſt-Branch of Saſquehannah, &c. as many of the Delawares who have not retired farther South, are collecting themſelves to have one Trial for their Country, which the whole Body of that Nation muſt abandon, if repulſed. There are 200 more in the ſame Service, under Capt. Montieur, and two other Officers; ſo that when Capt. Johnſon joins them, we may expect to hear that the Enemy have received their Deſerts.

Since the 8th ultimo, not leſs than 3000 Perſons have been innoculated for the Small-Pox in Boſton; and not above 5 of that Number died, and they were Children under 2 Years old, that had been troubled with other Infirmities.

Yeſterday, the Pitt Packet, Capt. Brigſtock, failed with the Mail for Falmouth.

PHILADELPHIA, April 19.

We hear from Northampton County, that one David Owens, a Deſerter from the Regulars, who has lived ſome Years among the Indians, came in laſt Week to one of our Out Poſts, bringing with him five freſh Indian Scalps, and a white Boy, who was a Priſoner among the Indians, being taken by them laſt Fall, when they killed the People that were croſſing Delaware in the Flat. They relate, that they were coming down Saſquehannah with nine Indians, viz. four Men, a Lad, two Women, and two Children, to fetch Corn; that they encamped at Night, and made a Fire to ſleep by; that in the Night Owens waked the white Boy, and made him go from among the Indians, and lie on the other Side of the Fire; that he then removed their Arms, except two Guns, and a Hatchet; with the two Guns he ſhot dead two of the Indian Men immediately, and with the Hatchet diſpatched the Indian Lad, the two Women, and two Children; but two of the Men made their Eſcape. Owens ſtaid not far from the Place till the Morning, when he ſcalped the two Men, the Lad, and the two Women; and then gave his Knife to the white Boy, bidding him ſcalp the two Children; but he declining it, they left them unſcalped, and came away.-----Owens reports that 900 Indians were aſſembled, and waiting for others to join them in an Invaſion of this Province; but the following Advices make this doubted.

Extract of a Letter from Johnſon Hall, April 6, 1764.

"I have now upon Service 400 friendly Indians, who will be able to free your Province from the Incurſions of the Delawares, &c. The Senecas have been ſo greatly alarmed, at the Bodies of Indians ſent out, that they have begged for Peace, and agreed to every Conceſſion required of them. I thought this News might not be diſagreeable to you."

Extract of a Letter from New-York, April 16.

"Sir William Johnſon has concluded a Peace with the Chenoſees. They are to deliver up the Murderers of one Hewlick, and two other Indian Traders, and for this have left three Hoſtages with Sir William. They are to deliver up all the Priſoners they have, Deſerters and Negroes, amongſt them. They have ceded to His Majeſty the Carrying Place at Niagara, and ſome other Poſts; have taken up the Hatchet againſt His Majeſty's Enemies; are to ſend a Number of Warriors to act againſt the Shawaneſe and Delawares; and are to call in all their People that are among them.------Sir William has ſeveral Parties out, above 400; one Party of 200, commanded by his Son; he expects very good Accounts from theſe Parties, and hopes to bring about a general Peace with the Indians."

Since our laſt, at a Court of Oyer and Terminer, held at the State-houſe, the following Perſons were tried for different Burglaries, viz. William Autenreith, for robbing the Houſe of Mr. Thomas Clifford; John Brinklow, alias Benſon, for robbing the Houſe of Mrs. Lydia M'Call; and John Williams, for robbing the Houſe of Mr. William Johnſton; of which Burglaries they were all convicted, and received Sentence of Death accordingly.

 The Perſon who loſt a Pinchbeck Watch on the 20th of December laſt, between Cuckolds-Town and Frankford, is deſired to call for the ſame at the New-Printing-Office.

For the Entertainment of the CURIOUS,

A COURSE of ELECTRICAL EXPERIMENTS, with explanatory LECTURES, is propoſed to be exhibited at the College, in this City, on Tueſday and Wedneſday next, provided the Air be dry enough, or, if not, on the two firſt dry Days after.

By EBENEZER KINNERSLEY, M. A. Profeſſor of Engliſh and Oratory in the College and Academy of Philadelphia.

This Course will be divided into two Lectures; in which, among many other Particulars, it will be shewn, that the ELECTRIC FIRE, produced by the Friction of Glass, or any other Electric Substance, is not the same with CULINARY FIRE, but is real LIGHTNING, the very same, in all Respects, with that which is seen and heard in a THUNDER-GUST; and that our Bodies, at all Times, contain enough of it to set a House on Fire.

Above fifty curious Experiments will be made on LIGHTNING; the principal Laws by which it always acts will be exhibited and explained; and a practicable Method shewn, and an Instance given, of the happy Success thereof in this City, whereby Houses, Ships, &c. may be preserved from being damaged by LIGHTNING.

As no One need feel the Effect of any of these Experiments, but those who choose it, and as the Quantity of LIGHTNING made use of will be but small, the most timorous Person need not apprehend being either hurt or terrified. But, as the Knowledge of Nature tends to enlarge the human Mind, and give us more noble, more grand and exalted Ideas of the Author of Nature, it is presumed that this Course will be, to some, an agreeable Entertainment.

Those who desire to have their Dwellings effectually secured from the destructive Violence of one of the most awful Powers of Nature, may, by these Lectures and Experiments, learn more of the Nature and Properties of LIGHTNING than was ever known in the World till lately; and, at the same time, be fully convinced, that the Method proposed for their Security will, if put in Practice, be attended with the desired Success; and consequently, that Mankind, instead of having any just Objection thereto, have great Reason to bless GOD for so useful a Discovery. For, "A "prudent Man foreseeth the Evil, and hideth himself; but the "Simple pass on, and are punished." Prov. xxii. 3.

The Lecture to begin, each Day, precisely at Eleven o'Clock. Tickets to be had at the London Coffee-House, or at Mr. KINNERSLEY's House, in Market-street: Price Half a Dollar for each Lecture. ⊖

By the HOPE, Captain JACOBSON, arrived at New-York, in a ſhort Paſſage from London, we have the following Advices, viz.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

MADRID, January 26.

THE marriage of the Infanta is ſaid to be now entirely ſettled. The Imperial Ambaſſador is to make his entry the 11th of next month to demand the Princeſs; and the feaſts will immediately ſucceed it. The King of Spain returns to Madrid for this purpoſe on the 10th. The Duke d'Oſſuna, a Grandee of the firſt claſs, is to ſet out very ſoon for Vienna, with the Infanta's picture, and is to proceed to Franckfort, to compliment the King of the Romans.

LONDON.

Feb. 21. On Saturday night laſt Mr. Alex. Dun, who ſince his late attempt on Friday to eſcape over the wall of the King's Bench priſon, had been confined to a room, tore up the flooring, and putting the boards, chairs, and his bed together, ſet them on fire, and had it not been happily diſcovered in time, the whole building might have been conſumed, and probably ſeveral lives loſt.

Sunday there being a ſtrong North wind, the tide roſe higher, by two feet, than has been known theſe forty years.

Feb. 22. Yeſterday morning, a little after nine o'clock, came on before the Right Hon. Lord Chief Juſtice Manſfield, in the court of King's Bench, Weſtminſter, the trial of John Wilkes, Eſq; as the ſuppoſed republiſher of No. 45 of the North Briton, with notes; the court was opened, in a very learned manner, by the Attorney General, who obſerved, that he had received certain information, that inflammatory papers had been ſent to the Gentlemen of the Jury, in favour of the defendant, tending to biaſs and prejudice their minds; his Lordſhip then made ſome remarks on the heinous nature of ſuch a proceeding, if true, and declared, if the offending party could be diſcovered, he ſhould be puniſhed in the moſt exemplary manner: A queſtion was then put to the Jury relative to the above, when the foreman acknowledged the fact; and, at the ſame time, putting his hand into his pocket, produced a paper on the other ſide, which he obſerved was equally inflammatory; and which put the whole court in a ſmile.

After the examination of witneſſes, and ſumming up the evidence, the Jury retired for an hour and three quarters, and then brought in the defendant guilty.

The counſel for the crown were Mr. Attorney General, Mr. Martin, Mr. Clayton, and Mr. Wallace. For Mr. Wilkes, Mr. Serjeant Glynn, Mr. Recorder of London, Mr. Stow, and Mr. Dunning.

After the above cauſe was ended, the court proceeded on the trial of Mr. Wilkes for printing a book intituled, "An Eſſay on Woman;" when the Jury, after about an hour's deliberation, brought him in guilty on that indictment alſo.

Sentence on both verdicts is to be given the firſt day of next term.

One of the copies of the Eſſay on Woman was handed to the Jury, who tried the ſecond cauſe. The perſons who were taking down minutes of the trial, were ordered by the Court to deſiſt, they deeming the expreſſions in the Eſſay on Woman improper to be made public.

We are told that Mr. Penn's eſtate in Pennſylvania, has been made to appear, from accounts long carefully kept up, but lately diſcovered by accident, notwithſtanding the ſlow improvement of that colony, till within the laſt 30 years, to be worth at preſent, at a low valuation, above ten millions Sterling, and will ſoon amount to much more. The procuring ſuch grants as theſe, was ſurely ſurprendre le Roi (as the French ſay) to a great degree.

A few days ago a certain popular gentleman, now in France, ſent orders to a friend in town, to go to the King's Bench priſon, and deliver a ſum of money to a priſoner detained there on his account, which was accordingly done.

The liveries of the Elector of Mentz's pages, for the coronation of a King of the Romans, coſt an hundred and twenty thouſand florins; and at Paris they are making two coaches for him, the fineſt of which will coſt at leaſt ſixty thouſand livres.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) March 14.

Letters from Penſacola ſay, that the evacuation of New Orleans and the French poſſeſſions weſt of the Miſſiſipi would ſpeedily take place, and add, that the Spaniards who are to take poſſeſſion thereof, were daily expected from Vera Cruz. The French, we are told, will embark for Hiſpaniola as ſoon as the Spaniſh garriſon arrives.

Notwithſtanding the bad accounts from the country of the Creek Indians, ſeveral traders from Georgia have ſet out for that country, but no concluſion can be drawn from this circumſtance againſt the truth of thoſe accounts, if it is remembered that moſt, if not all the traders to the Cherokees, deſpiſed or diſbelieved every thing that was told them concerning the bad diſpoſitions of thoſe Indians before the commencement of the late war, and that many of thoſe traders paid for their temerity with their lives.

NEW-LONDON, April 6

On Saturday, the 24th of laſt Month, a Boat (in which was Mr. Daniel Williams, his Wife and an Apprentice, Meſſrs. Graham and Pratt, all of Sea-Brook) went from ſaid Place, intending for Sagg Harbour, on Long-Iſland; but on the ſucceeding Day the Boat was found drove on Shore at Shelter Iſland, and all on board drowned.---'Tis ſuppoſed the Boat run on a Flat about 50 Rods from the Shore, in a Squall of Wind on Saturday Evening, & being deep loaded the Sea beat over her.

BOSTON, April 13.

Numbers of Perſons are daily coming in to Town, as alſo to the Hoſpitals at Point Shirley and Caſtle William, to receive the Small-Pox by Inoculation: Beſides thoſe who come from the neighbouring Towns, there are ſeveral from the Province of New-Hampſhire, the Colonies of Connecticut, and Rhode Iſland. It is judged that between 3 and 4000 Perſons have gone ſafely through that Diſtemper, in the Time ſince Liberty was granted for Inoculation, which is five Weeks; and it is obſervable that there has been little or no Infection from thoſe who have had this Diſeaſe; we can not learn that there has been twenty Perſons taken down in the natural Way in the above Time, notwithſtanding that there are ſeveral Hundred Children in this Town who are expoſed thereto, by the Scruples the Parents or Guardians of them have as to the Lawfulneſs of the Practice:---It has been generally allowed, that only one in a thouſand have died in the preſent Method in Hoſpitals, but in Town, it is ſaid one in about 200 have failed, the moſt of them Infants: This Difference is eaſily accounted for; in Hoſpitals only thoſe who are prepared, and are fit Subjects, will be accepted; whereas in a large Town, the Families are inoculated indiſcriminately, many of whom are unfit Subjects; this is done partly through the Impatience of People who would not wait the neceſſary Preparation, leſt they ſhould take it the common Way; and partly from the Importunity of Parents prevailing with the Phyſicians againſt their Judgment and Advice to inoculate weak Children, labouring under other Diſorders, becauſe the Parents could not immediately remove them out of the Way of the Diſtemper, and thought they would at leaſt ſtand a better Chance by being inoculated, than in taking the Infection, as they would probably do, in the common Way. The Phyſicians were alſo ſuddenly oppreſſed with the great Hurry of Buſineſs, which ſo haſty and general Inoculation occaſioned, and probably many of them could not ſo particularly attend to the Circumſtances of the Patients offered for Inoculation.

Tueſday the 3d Inſtant in the Morning was remarkably cloudy dark Weather, with Rain, Thunder and Lightning, not only here, but as far as New-York. At Walpole a Flaſh of Lightning came down the Chimney of the Houſe of Mr. Joſeph Gay, and tore the Summer under the Hearth to Splinters, and a Dog that lay in the Corner was killed: Five Perſons who were ſitting in the Room were ſtruck ſpeechleſs, but are ſince recovered, the Chair whereon one of them ſat was ſhivered to Pieces: The Exploſion was ſo violent that it ſhook every Window in the Houſe to Pieces.

We hear from New-Haven, that ſome Days ago, immediately after Breakfaſt, between 60 and 70 of the Students of Yale College were ſuddenly taken ill of ſome unknown Diſorder, ſuppoſed to be from Poiſon in their Food; whether from Accident or Deſign of ſome villainous Perſon, Time perhaps will diſcover. By the Care of Phyſicians moſt of them are almoſt recovered, but ſome are ſtill in a precarious State.

NEW-YORK, April 19.

We hear from Elizabeth Town, that on Monday laſt Alderman Stites, of that Place, a Gentleman generally eſteemed, being about to ſtraighten a Road, of which he was Overſeer, by the Removal of a Fence, belonging to one Sears, which was an Encroachment upon it----Sears having before heard of his Deſign, declared (if he attempted it) he would ſhoot him, and accordingly loaded his Gun with Powder and Shot. When Mr. Stites, with his Labourers on the High-way, approached the Fence, he ſaw Sears with his Gun, and aſked him where he was going with it--- He replied, I will tell you, damn ye; and immediately fired at him, lodging the Shot in his Side and Belly. Sears was, after ſome Reſiſtance, ſecured, and confined in Goal. It is thought Mr. Stites cannot recover, tho' it is not certain whether the Shot have penetrated his Bowels; ſeveral have been extracted, but he had a high Fever, and was in exquiſite Pain, tho' ſtill alive, Yeſterday Morning.

The Harriot Packet, Captain Robinſon, from New-York, arrived at Falmouth the 16th of February.

ANNAPOLIS, April 12.

We have lately received ſome melancholy Accounts from the Weſtward, of ſeveral People being killed and taken by the Indians. We had an Account Yeſterday, that on Saturday laſt three Men were killed near the Warm Springs in Virginia with Indian Arrows, and afterwards ſcalped. Fourteen Families have left their Settlements within a few Days.

STOCKHOLM, January 20.

OUR Court has received the following intelligence. The Drotningholm, one of our Merchantmen, sailing from Cadiz to Marseilles, met with a Tunisian xebeque, which made the usual signal for exhibiting passports; accordingly the Captain sent his pass with 6 men in the boat; but by his spy-glass he perceived that his men were taken on board the xebeque, and that his boat was filled with Turks. Upon which the Merchantman crowded sail, and got into Leghorn. At the same time our Court received advice, that the Regency of Tunis had declared war against us, and ordered their Corsairs to take all Swedish ships they might meet in the Mediterranean. This proceeding is grounded upon nothing but the delay of some presents, which had been promised by Sweden, and which our Court did really send, but the ship that carried them was wrecked near Elsineur.

Vienna, Jan. 28. As the King of Prussia seems to have a design to form a camp on the frontiers towards Poland, we talk also of encamping on that side a corps of 50,000 men; and we are assured, that the troops in Bohemia and Moravia have orders to prepare for that purpose.

Hague, Feb. 14. Accounts have been received here of the safe arrival of her Royal Highness the Hereditary Princess of Brunswick, with his most Serene Highness the Prince, at Loo on Saturday last, and at Twickel on Sunday; so that it is thought their Highnesses will be able to get forward, notwithstanding the floods, which so terribly incommode this part of Europe. All possible honours, as well civil as military, have been shewn to the Prince and Princess, wherever they have passed, in the territories of their High Mightinesses.

LONDON, February 18.

The Aigrette frigate is arrived at Rochfort, with the Governor of Louisiana and his family on board, after a very bad passage.

Letters by yesterday's mail from France, advise, that they had it strongly reported at Paris, that there had happened a misunderstanding between our Court and that of France, on account of the great number of people and forces which have embarked, and are daily embarking for Cayenne, in the West-Indies.

A curious marble pedestrian statue of his Majesty, King George III. is finished by Mr. Wilton, the statuary, and will shortly be placed, by order of the city of London, amongst the other statues of the English Kings, on the Royal Exchange.

We hear that two young gentlemen, natives of Guiney, who have received a liberal education, under a worthy and learned clergyman of this city, will shortly receive holy orders in the Church of England, and be sent over, agreeable to their characters, in order to propagate the gospel among the Negroes, their countrymen.

They write from Paris, that there is a general apprehension of their ecclesiastical disputes breaking out again with greater vehemence than ever; the bold step taken by the General of the Jesuits at Rome, in appointing a Provincial, and other officers for France, as if the Order still subsisted there in full vigour; the Pastoral Instruction of the Archbishop of Paris, in which he expressly maintains that the Society are out of the reach of the laws; the distribution of this letter to all the Communities, and to all the Curates at Paris; and the publication of a new performance in justification of it, since it was burnt by order of the Parliament, are principal grounds of these apprehensions.

It is said a petition from certain Jews, for leave to settle in the new colonies conditionally, has, for some time past, been under consideration. These people propose advancing a large sum upon the credit of the province, to be employed for the service of agriculture and commerce, provided certain privileges and immunities may be granted them for a term of years, from the date of their first arrival in America.

The Ambuscade privateer, Captain Roberts, which went in consort with the Lord Clive, Captain M'Namara, to the South-Seas, where the latter was unfortunately blown up, is arrived at Lisbon.

Letters from Brest of the 20th ult. advise, that orders were arrived there from the Court of France, to get the Sceptre man of war of 74 guns; le Solitaire, and l'Union, of 64 guns each; l'Amphion of 50, and le Licorne frigate, of 32, with the Danae frigate at Nants; as also another frigate, ready by the first of April next, to put to sea; l'Amphion and Licorne are to be victualled for five months, and the others only for three months.

The report of the French being to be allowed to send ships to trade to the South-Sea, cannot, we think, be true; as by the latter part of the sixth article of the Treaty of Utrecht, the French King consented and engaged, that he would not for the interest of his subjects hereafter endeavour to obtain, or accept of, any other usage of navigation and trade to Spain, and the Spanish West-Indies, than what was practised in the reign of the late King Charles II. of Spain, and than what should be likewise given and granted at the same time, to other nations and people concerned in trade. The Treaty of Utrecht is a Treaty which existed before the late war; and the late Peace renewed and confirmed all the Treaties, of what nature soever, which existed before the late war, as well between Great-Britain and France, as between Great-Britain and Spain, as also between either of them and Portugal, notwithstanding whatever may have been stipulated to the contrary by any of the High Contracting Parties; and all the said Parties declare, that they will not suffer any privilege, favour or indulgence to subsist, contrary to the Treaties above confirmed. Thus the danger with which the Family Compact menaced our commercial interest, is, or ought to be, effectually removed.

"There has been an insurrection in Transylvania. General Criskowitz, at the head of two battalions, provided with some pieces of cannon, attacked the revolted peasants, but with so little success, that he has been forced to retire himself, wounded, to Cronstadt; for intending to pass one night in the castle of Schaesburg, it was set fire to, and he made his escape out of the back windows. Nine hundred peasants who had been inlisted by force, according to these advices, are gone over to the Turks; a still greater number into the Otteman Walachia; and the rest are got into thick and inaccessible woods. It is added, that they have cut to pieces most of the German officers who commanded them. In their affair with Gen. Criskowitz they had 80 men killed, and 100 wounded or prisoners. They are said to have been led to this extremity by a great execution at Pistriz, where 30 peasants, amongst others, were put to death. The Civil Government at Hermanstadt have had no hand in all this.

"We have a report also of some clouds forming in another part. A fraternity of the Black-Rose, which was at first looked upon with indifference, seems now to excite great attention."

The postscript of another letter from Ratisbon says; "The Fraternity of the Black-Rose, the center whereof may be placed at Prague, is not so numerous as has been given out. It may amount to 1500 persons, of all orders, and all ranks. It is said that a hundred of them have been arrested."

Feb. 20. There were 455 Members in the Hon. House of Commons on Saturday morning at five o'clock, when they broke up.

The Dutch East-India Company have actually at this time no less than thirty thousand European soldiers in their several factories and garrisons in the East-Indies, and it is said eleven ships of the line, besides frigates.

We hear that the island of St. John's, of which Lord Egmont has obtained a grant, is to be divided into fifty baronies, subdivided into so many freeholds each; the whole to be held by military tenures, Lord Egmont being Lord Paramount.

Feb. 21. They write from Leghorn, that the Algerines had taken a Dutch dogger laden with corn, and carried her into Genoa.

On Wednesday last the Prince of Wales East Indiaman was taken up, and will sail with all possible expedition, with a train of artillery, and 3 or 400 soldiers, for Bengal.

It is reported, that His Majesty will visit his German dominions this year.

It is suspected that a scheme was laid some days ago by a gang of villians to rob a ship in the river, lately arrived from North America, of a large chest of dollars, amounting to 20,000; for on Sunday morning the ship dog was found dead upon deck, and it is thought the attempt was laid aside, on the rogues having discovered that the silver was put ashore the p eceding day.

A Letter from Lunebourg, Feb. 8.

"The Marshal of the Court of Brunswick, and some Pages, are come here to be ready to attend the Hereditary Prince and Princess, who are expected in a few days. Twenty fine horses are also arrived from Brunswick, as well as a superb state coach, sent by the Court of Hanover for the use of their Highnesses."

Bridge-Town, in Barbados, January 26.

We hear from Essequebo, that captain Smith, who went from hence (with a company to protect the river Demarara, upon the rebellion of the negroes at Berbicia) being joined with a few Dutch soldiers, marched over, by the desire of the governor of Berbicia, to the head of that river, where he attacked and gained, on the 23d of December, an advantageous post that the negroes had secured.---He killed about sixty, and took twenty six prisoners.

BOSTON, April 16.

Saturday evening the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD arrived at the Seat of the Hon. Isaac Royal, Esq; at Medford, from the Eastward; and we hear he intends setting out for the Southward without coming to Town.

PROVIDENCE, April 14.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Montreal, to another in this Town, dated March 14, 1764.

"The Indian War has occasioned almost a total Stagnation of Business in this Quarter, and Cash is much scarcer here than in the Maritime Provinces.

"We are going to raise a Regiment of Canadians, to be commanded by their own Officers, to be sent against the Indians, which must take off all Hope of Assistance or Dependance on the French."

NEWPORT, April 16.

We hear from Boston, that a Lady in that Place, of 59 Years of Age, hath been lately innoculated for the Small-Pox, and is perfectly recovered, having had the Distemper in a very favourable Manner. The Reason she gave for going through the Operation, was, that she did not choose to be any longer subject to the Inconvenience of removing out of Town once in every ten or twelve Years.

By an Express which arrived here on Friday last from Albany, we have the following authenticated Accounts respecting the farther Success of our Indian Detachments against the Enemy Indians, viz. "That in the Evening of the 15th of April Instant, an Indian Express came with a Letter to Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON, at Johnson-Hall, acquainting him, That Capt. Montour, after passing several Creeks and Rivers, which were very high and difficult at this Season, arrived with his Party, consisting of 140 Indians, with some Rangers, the Beginning of this Month, at the Cayuga Branch of the Susquehannah River, which the Enemy had abandoned with the utmost Precipitation;---That they had destroyed two large Towns, of well-built square Log-Houses with Chimnies, and a large Quantity of Indian Corn, and other Provisions; several new Saddles, Kettles, some Arms, Axes, &c. which they had probably taken from the Inhabitants. After this, Montour proceeded to the large Town of Kinesthio, containing 60 good Houses, which he likewise burnt; and there, as well as at the other Towns, killed a Number of Cattle, which could not be brought off; and sent Parties in Pursuit of the Enemy, who have fled to the Southward, whilst with the Few remaining, he destroyed four other Villages of the Enemy, on the Branches of the Susquehanna. And as the Senecas will now join with the Five Nations (since they have entered into a Peace with Sir William, and made large Concessions, for the Performance of which they have left several Hostages) there is great Reason to think, our Enemies will be overtaken, and justly chastised for their Defection."

It was never before known, that the UNITED NATIONS were so unanimous, and hearty, in our Cause.---They have All, to a Man, taken up the Hatchet against all His Majesty's Enemies, and are ready to use it when ever call'd upon.

It is without Doubt, That Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON, in June next, goes to NIAGARA, in order to compleat a firm Peace with the Senecas, and the Western Indians; which when concluded, can not but leave Us in general throughout the Province, (as well as some neighbouring Provinces) in quiet Possession of Ours and Their LIVES and PROPERTIES;--of which many have dreaded the Certainty.

His Honour Sir WILLIAM, we are credibly told, is likely farther to reduce the Pride and Insolence of the Delawares and Shawanese; the Indians which he has now engaged against them, being determined to---shake them by the Head, --- alias, to bring them to REASON.

He is still further prodigiously worried (in the Service of his Superintendantship, and Good of the Country) in being surrounded for Twenty Two Days on the 12th Instant, by 468 of the SIX NATIONS. They went off soon after, extremely well satisfied, in being answered in near One Thousand of their Demands and Wants: And we dare affirm, That there is scarce an Individual (except those around him) who can conceive our Superintendant's Situation.

Yesterday sailed from Sandy-Hook, the Venus Transport, for England, and the Sardine Sloop of War for Philadelphia.
